

MINUTES – MAY 5, 2016
BERGENFIELD SENIOR CITIZENS COMMITTEE

Our meeting opened at 9:30 am with the salute to the flag and a moment of silence for our service men and women. All committee members were in attendance. Minutes of April 7, 2016 were read and accepted with no additions or deletions.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Current Bank Checking Balance: $ 909.61

Budget: 8,050.00

Kitty: 364.83

Postage: 9.31

Spent $2,057.00 for spring luncheon at the VFW on April 17, which was a little less than the Christmas/Holiday luncheon.

Treasurer's report accepted with no additions/deletions.

OLD BUSINESS:

Pat, our president, thanked our committee members for our service at the Spring luncheon which was deemed a success, and an enjoyable day for all our residents and committee members. Regarding the Spring luncheon, Marge, our VP and coordinator, reported that about 30 people (about three (3) tables) did not show up and did not call for same, which would have avoided extra setting up work. To be addressed in our Twin-Boro Senior Scene column.

May 26, 2016 (Thursday): Grounds for Sculpture, Hamilton Township, Trenton, $13.00 pp includes bus driver tip. Lunch on own.

June 15, 2016 (Wednesday): Picnic at Memorial Park, 12:00-4:00 pm. To date there are 79 attendees. Details to be discussed at next meeting. Some of our committee members will not be able to attend for personal reasons.

NEW BUSINESS:

June 15, 2016 (Wednesday): Picnic at Memorial Park, 12:00-4:00 pm. We have most paper goods, will check supply in our closet at Memorial Park. May need to purchase additional cutlery. Details regarding the food to be discussed at next meeting.
